HOW TO TREAT HUSBANDS.

New Jersey Pastor Lays Down Epigrammatic Rules for Wives.

Jersey City, N. J.—Rev. Dr. J. L.
Scudder, of the First Congregational church, has preached a sermon on "How to Treat Your Husband." These are some of the rules and comments made on married life by the preacher:

"No wife can be as free and frivolous as she was before her nuptial days. Her station demands a certain matronly dignity.

"Don't be one of those autocratic creatures that say 'Marriage makes two one and I'm the one.'

"The man who is married to one of those female tyrants with firm chin and haughty demeanor has no need of purgatorial fire in the life to come.

"A qualification of a model wife is to keep her temper and control her tongue.

"A cross, cantankerous jade loves to give her husband a piece of her mind, and usually, like a mosaic, her mind is composed of many pieces.

"Scolding wives live long and die hard. They possess vitality, volubility and sometimes vituperation.

"If a husband persists in going round in his shirt sleeves and leaves his clothes about the room when he should put them in the closet, never mind such trifles. They are only spots on the sun."

FARM FOR HUMMINGBIRDS.

New York Woman Will Raise Tiny
Birds for Pets.

New York.—Convinced that hummingbirds will make good household pets, Miss Gwendolin Brooks of Central Park West, is going to raise them in Central Islip, L. I. Miss Brooks has bought a farm there and has obtained plans for aviaries from W. Albert Swassey.

She proposes to sell the tiny birds, and said she already has a lot of commissions for them. In spite of their small size they are not difficult to keep in good health, she declared, and they are most interesting to study. She has experimented in raising them in the south and west.

At Central Islip Miss Brooks will make a specialty of the species known as the "ruby-breasted" birds. Their real home is in South America, but they migrate to this climate in the hot weather, nest here and return to the tropics in August before cold weather can nip their frail bodies.
Just how they manage to survive the hardships of their long journey here and back to the tropics has long puzzled naturalists.

Miss Brooks says that if the birds have considerable space to fly about in and are well fed with honey and insects they are not hard to raise.

NEWSPAPER TO TELL TRUTH.

Publication Will Deal with Society Regardless of Libel Laws.

London.—According to the Financial News, arrangements are being made to publish an English daily newspaper, the chief feature of which will be an absolute defiance of the libel laws.

It will publish comment of any kind upon any person, will deal with society scandals and financial gossip with unrestrained frankness, not concealing the names or the most intimate details. Cases before law courts on which comment is not allowed will be discussed regardless of the law, in a manner "calculated to take the curls out of counsels' wigs."

Judges will be criticised as freely as witnesses. If the latter are regarded as committing perjury they will be pilloried. Therefore the paper's conductors propose to avoid prosecution or suppression of their sheet by printing it in Belgium or France and mailing copies to English subscribers.

There will be no offices in England.
If the postoffice refuses to circulate the paper in wrappers copies will be inclosed in envelopes.
